

Mode of Order - Manner of Transmutation
 Mode of Chaos - Manner of Command
 Mode of Knowledge - Manner of Truth

By controlling a mode a Mancer is able to become the personification of the Mode. By nature a Mode exists without an avatar.

Can the three modes be conquered by one Mancer? Can the modes be used in a configuration that creates or unlocks some kind of secret?

Are Mancers created by Modes? Does a Mode purely existing eventually create a Mancer?

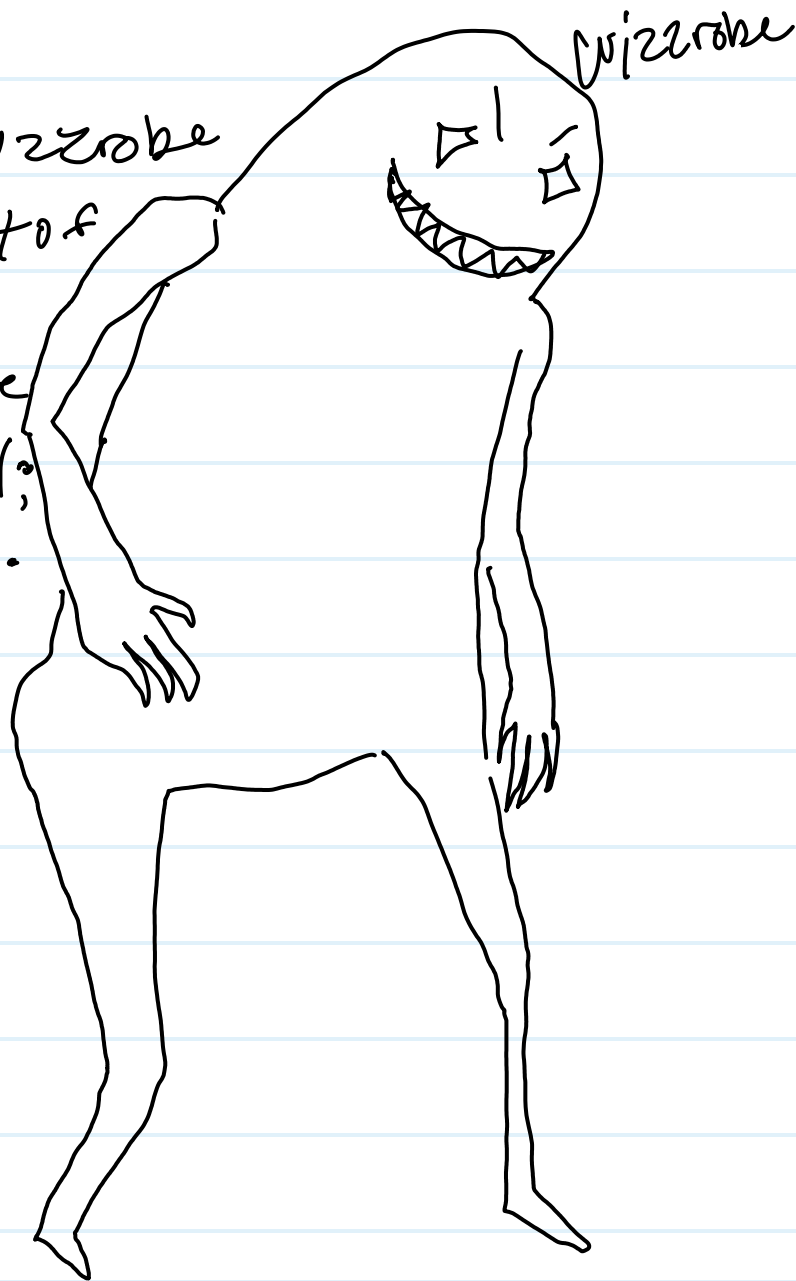

One that is omnipresent of the other modes but not without them?

If there is a fourth Mode, Omnipresent of the three, Does it
 spawn an avatar?
 Is that the character?

Command coming out of a pool
 of Chaos, willing its own creation and thrusting its avatar into existence

Both Wizzrobe
 does sort of embody
 that pure
 dark evil;
 goo like.

Mode

the Fourth Mancer

Could the Fourth Mode be a Mancer?
 The state of having an avatar itself?
 The mode is being a Mancer? A Being?
 Being.

When the Modes are controlled by Mancers, a Fourth Mancer is created?

When the modes are controlled by Mancers the Fourth Mode is enacted?
 How does Omnipresence work???
